"I am satisfied with the result of the election," said Senator Kalauokalani, President of the Home Rule party yesterday. The statement may be taken to mean that there will be no contest by the Home Rulers in the County of Oahu.

"I don't know about a contest," continued Kalauokalani. "It is still in the hands of the committee. I am satisfied though. The Home Rulers did good work. I got Maui, most of East Hawaii and nearly half of West Hawaii. Then I got one man on Kauai and about half of Oahu. I am satisfied with the result."

AN OLD SAYING.

Showing How Cause and Effect Are Never Far Removed.

It is an old saying "Where there's honey there's bees"—not less true is one which science has coined more recently, "Where there's Dandruff there's germs"—and to push the inference still further we may truly say "Where there's Dandruff cured Newbro's Herpicide has been at work."

The reason of Herpicide's isolation as a genuine cure for Dandruff lies in the fact that it attacks and destroys the root of the whole trouble—a parasitic germ which feeds upon the material which nourishes the hair follicle. Other so-called remedies are not directed at this true cause of the disease.

HILO AT AN OLD GAMEWants to Cheat the Territory Out of Taxes.Talks of Holding Back
Money for County
Treasury.Volcano Still Spouting Fire and Smoke—Stock Breeder's Convention Postponed.

HILO, Nov. 16.—There has been in Hilo and other places talk of holding out taxes due now until after the County Act goes into effect, when the same would be paid into the county treasury. Some quite heavy tax payers have said that they would willingly pay penalty for delinquency for the sake of saving the money for the county. The subject has evidently come to the ears of the Territorial officers at Honolulu, as Mr. Willifong has received imperative orders to sue for taxes promptly on November 20.

This unusual order shows that Honolulu proposes to crowd the collections. The matter is of vital interest to Messrs. Geo. H. Williams and R. A. Lyman, who collect the taxes. They are paid in commissions and for the first ten months of the year the collections amount to little. It will therefore be seen that the Tax Collector will not be in sympathy with the scheme to hold out the taxes for the benefit of the counties.—Hilo Tribune.

MEETING POSTPONED.

The executive committee of the Hawaiian Live Stock Breeders Association at a meeting held in Honolulu, October 28, passed the following resolution regarding the annual meeting which was to have been held in Hilo November 19:

"Resolved that the annual meeting be postponed to some date in the spring of 1904, because of the impossibility to get a full and satisfactory meeting at the place and on the date set, and also out of respect to Mr. Julian Monarrat who because of his recent bereavement will be unable to take the principal part in the meeting planned."

VOLCANO STILL ALIVE.

The volcano is reported to be more active than ever. The latest reports are from the volcano house, where the view is said to be very fine. Tuesday night the light over the mountain showed up very brilliant. The fire or reflection has not been visible from Hilo for some days owing to unfavorable cloudiness.

A party from the other side went up last Sunday and they report that the action in the crater was wonderful as ever was worth the trip to see.—Hilo Tribune.

PINEAPPLE PROSPECT.

Persons interested in pineapple culture in this district are inclined to erect a small independent cannery rather than contract with Mr. Bentley to sell fruit at one cent per pound. It is thought that sufficient capital can be raised here for this purpose. The proposition made by Mr. Bentley is not entirely satisfactory to the producers.—Herald.

LYMAN-MACKAY.

The reported marriage of F. S. Lyman to Doctor Katharine Mackay surprised Hilo people last week. The marriage took place at the coast and the bride and groom are expected here at any time. Dr. Mackay practiced here for a short time a few years ago.—Herald.

HILO TENNIS.

The Hilo Tennis Club court has been the center of interest since the beginning of the tournament last week. Games were played Wednesday, Friday, Saturday, Monday and Tuesday. Doubles have been played by Prouty and Ralph Balding against Vicars and Ragsdale; Rice and Smith against Balding and Dr. Elliot; Madeira and Hapal against Wachs and Guard.—Hilo Tribune.

THE WAILUKU BRIDGE.

The stone work for the Wailuku bridge at Bridge street is completed. The Ashlar work will be begun next week. The structure will be thirty feet from the water line and will be ten feet higher than the town side of the old bridge.—Herald.

GOVERNMENT CLAIMS IT.

The government has notified claimants of property on the makai side of Front street from the Mercantile Company's lumber office to and including the Central Meat Market, that it will prove ownership to the property. This means that the street may be widened to eighty feet for almost its entire length.—Herald.

Young, chief of staff of the U. S. Army. The wedding took place on October 7 at Washington in the presence of distinguished guests including President and Mrs. Roosevelt, in St. Thomas church. Capt. P. W. Davidson attended the groom.

The other grooms and brides are Lieut. and Mrs. L. A. Curtis, Lieut. and Mrs. A. H. Huguet, Lieut. and Mrs. James Justice, Lieut. and Mrs. Henry A. Ripley, Lieut. and Mrs. Robt. Whitfield, Lieut. and Mrs. La Vergne L. Gregg, Lieut. and Mrs. Harry Parshall.

THE TWENTY-SECOND'S RECORD.

The Twenty-Second Infantry comprises 732 enlisted men and 109 men will join the regiment at Manila. Col. Henry Wygant, who as Major of the Twenty-fourth Infantry, made a fine record at San Juan, is in command. Lieut.-Col. W. P. Maus, formerly of General Miles' staff, is second in command. Capt. Hamilton, during General Wood's regime in Cuba, was chief engineer in the cleaning up of Santiago, transforming it from a dirty, diseased-ridden city, to a municipality on a sanitary basis.

Among the passengers is Miss Marie Voorhies, a society girl of San Francisco who is enroute to Manila to be the guest of Governor and Mrs. Wright. Mrs. Maus and Judge Warren H. Ickis of the Manila Court of First Instance.

Contract Surgeon Baker, who takes the place of Dr. Rich at Camp McKinley, was a passenger, accompanied by Mrs. Baker and child. Sixteen enlisted men also arrived to join the artillery force at Camp McKinley. Mrs. Neill and three children, the family of Sergeant Neill, also arrived.

The Sheridan carries in its strong box nearly 2,000,000 Philippine pesos, and $500,000 in U. S. gold coin.

FAMOUS TWENTY-SECOND.

The Twenty-second Infantry has had a war experience in the past five years which has given the regiment a name in the army for gallantry, which came only through a baptism of fire which lasted during its entire career both in Cuba and the Philippines. It has also the sad record of having lost two Colonels in battle. Col. Wyckoff was killed in Cuba and Col. Egbert, well known in Honolulu, was killed in action in the Philippines.

The Twenty-second returned from the Philippines in March, 1902, and barely had an opportunity to settle down for a period of rest in "the country," as the soldiers term the mainland, before it was ordered back again. After passing through the Cuban campaign the Twenty-second was ordered direct to the Philippines arriving there March 5, 1899, and was at once sent out under General Lloyd Wheaton on an expedition around Pasig, Laguna Bay and the lake region in general, during which time it had some fierce fighting, the Filipinos massing their strength about Manila then under Aguinaldo, Pio del Pilar and other doughty leaders. The second expedition of the regiment was under Wheaton from Calocan to Malaban, starting on March 24 and marching and fighting until the first week in April. Heavy fighting, day and night, harassed by the Filipinos who operated against the Americans with a dense timber belt as their base, resulted finally in the death of Col. Egbert. At Malinta church 17 men were killed, and about 50 wounded, including several officers. The regiment returned on April 2, and occupied the long stretch of trenches passing Calocan, the waterworks and La Loma church, and was constantly under fire. On April 24 the regiment was under Gen. Lawton, and starting from La Loma church, the regiment went on a thirty-six day flanking expedition. When Gen. McArthur took command of the brigade in which the Twenty-fourth was organized, the regiment was split, the second battalion being sent to Candaba on the Rio Grande river. The first battalion under Maj. Balce, who afterwards became Brig.-General for distinguished service, participated in a sanguinary scrap which cut up the Filipinos. The battalion was one which assisted in the chase after Aguinaldo as far north as Vigan. In this wild chase after the rebel leader, the battalion covered 484 miles on foot, over a rough country, going over the highest range of mountains in northern Luzon. During this time the clothing and shoes of the soldiers gave out until all were in rags. There were hardly fourteen pair of decent shoes in the command. The men subsisted on rice and what could be picked up, but in spite of the hardships the men did not murmur. Gen. Lawton highly complimented Major Balance for the work performed on this expedition. During its long and hard service, but few men of the regiment were made prisoners by the Filipinos, and all were retaken with the exception of two who were killed and mutilated by their captors.

The regiment during its stay on the mainland was assigned to duty as follows: Headquarters band and two battalions at Fort Crook, Neb.; B and C companies at Fort Root, near Little Rock, Ark.; A and D companies at Fort Reno.

The men on arrival yesterday morning were taken ashore for a practice march up town. The vessel is scheduled to sail for Manila on Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock. Rough weather was experienced during the greater part of the trip.
